

Classic Community

Traditional Assisted Living

All of our assisted living apartments feature private bathrooms, ample closet space, kitchenettes, and easy-care flooring.

“My mother moved in three months ago and already I’m seeing her grow in ways I never expected. New residents can be assured that they have joined an ideal environment for their continued safety and support as this new and very positive chapter in their lives awaits them”
—Sara

Our Classic Community offers traditional assisted living options for adults looking for a little extra help with daily activities. Designed for aging adults, this community is ideal for those who desire assistive services while living independently in a safe, secure setting.

All the Comforts of Home With All the Support You Need

Mary Ann Morse at Heritage offers comfortable, worry-free living with all of the conveniences you want—under one roof. Choose from cozy studios, 1-bedrooms, or spacious 2-bedroom apartments with a range of floor plans. All apartments are designed for comfort and safety, with features such as low-maintenance finishes and flooring, easy-access bathrooms, and emergency call response systems.

As a resident, you’ll enjoy our all-inclusive amenities, including restaurant-style dining, cleaning services, a variety of daily onsite activities, and more. You may also choose to add personal services*, as needed, which can be provided within your current setting. They include:

- Bed making
- Bathing/grooming
- Transfers
- Medication management
- Dressing
- Toileting

Up to one hour of incremental assistance or supervision is provided daily*

Together, for Better

All of us at Mary Ann Morse at Heritage are committed to promoting and supporting a vibrant living community where all are welcomed, valued, and respected. We strive to ensure open, ongoing communication through:

- Monthly resident council forums
- Regularly-scheduled family and resident consultations
- Published activities calendars and Heritage newsletters
- Family and resident surveys and feedback
- Onsite and virtual events

More than a Place to Live, a Place to Thrive

What is it you love doing most? Playing piano? Curling up with a good book? Painting? Singing? Whatever your favorite hobby or pastime, you're sure to find it here at Mary Ann Morse at Heritage. Our active community offers plenty of opportunities to follow your passions—and discover new ones—on your own or with friends and neighbors. Choose from a full calendar of daily activities that include:

- Exercise, seated yoga, and stretching classes
- Lectures, book clubs, and current events sessions
- Musical performances, choral groups, and sing-alongs
- Arts and crafts classes
- Cooking demonstrations
- Gardening

Each day you'll find engaging social, educational, recreational, and cultural events, just steps from your apartment. Plus, you can choose to join any number of regularly-scheduled local outings and excursions. There's always something going on that's sure to enrich the body, mind, and spirit!
